

“NOORONGONG”

Historic Forbes | Lachlan Valley
Central West NSW | Australia

SOLD - PRESS RELEASE

Date: February 1st, 2024

Forbes based rural property specialists Johnston Rural Group are pleased to announce the successful sale and settlement of “Noorongong”: one of the district’s best positioned mixed farms – with size, scale and outstanding soil characteristics.

The 835.38 hectares (2,064.2 acres) mixed farm, which was offered for sale ‘as a whole’ as well as in three separate parcels, was sold to Lawson Grains (‘as a whole’ excluding crop) for an undisclosed sum as the result of a successful Expressions of Interest (EOI) campaign that closed in October last year.

Agent’s Comments:

Marketing Agent Sam Johnston explained that: “This acquisition was a strategic fit for Lawson Grains given its existing Uah Aggregation is located adjacent to the southern boundary”.
